

Good afternoon.

I am Mikhail Gorenkov, and I am interested in your vacancy.

My skills:

I write code

I understand the principles of software development, OOP, I know the basics of algorithms and data structures.

I am able to work in a team and multitask.

I was very attracted by the opportunity to start a professional career within your company, participation in various projects and the mentoring system, this is important for me now. In turn, I am ready to make every effort and knowledge to implement projects that will be in progress.

Willing to learn new things and adapt quickly.

I will be happy to talk in more detail at the interview and complete the test task.

I am waiting for your answer, Mikhail Gorenkov, phone 8 967 805-69-19.
